

If you have been convicted of a crime, you still have the right to vote.

- If you have been convicted of a misdemeanor, you have the right to vote, even if you are incarcerated.
- If you have been arrested for a felony but have not been convicted, you still have the right to vote.
- If you have been convicted of a felony, you may not vote while incarcerated. Once you are out of prison or jail, you must re-register to vote, even if you were previously registered. You have the right to vote.
- If you live in a halfway house, are on house arrest or any sort of correctional control that does not involve a jail term, you have the right to vote.
- If you are on parole, or probation for a felony that does not involve a jail term, you have the right to vote.

For more information on voting rights, visit www.acluohio.org/vote

You are eligible to vote in Ohio:

- If you are a citizen of the United States.
- If you will be 18 on or before the day of the election in which you plan to vote.
- If you have been a resident of Ohio for at least 30 days immediately before the election for which you are registering.
- If you have not been declared incompetent to vote by a probate court.
- If you are not currently incarcerated for a felony in any state.
- If you have not permanently lost your voting rights due to violation of election laws.
- If you have registered to vote.