The court held a hearing on November 21, 2017, at 2:00 p.m., regarding the backlog of complaint investigations at the Cleveland Office of Professional Standards (“OPS”). The court heard from the Monitor and counsel for the parties in the within case.

As a result of the hearing, the parties will confer and create a new revised plan by December 15, 2017, for eliminating the OPS backlog. Should the City have difficulty complying with the revised plan, the court will likely hold a hearing to determine what remedial action, if any, should be ordered.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
