

SAMPLE

Know Your Rights:

Teens & Students

ACLU

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION
FOUNDATION

Ohio

Interactions with Law Enforcement

SAMPLE

“Golden Rules” when stopped by police

Remain calm

Do not argue, touch the officer, or run

Think about your words/body language

Know that police can lie/ask trick questions

Student/Teen Rights: Interactions with Law Enforcement

SAMPLE

Students' Rights: Scenario #1

SAMPLE

School officials want to search three things. Given their rights, what are they allowed to search?

A

A student's locker

B

A student's car in school parking lot

C

A student's car that's parked on the street

Teen Health & the Law: Scenario #2

SAMPLE

▶ A & B

A minor does not need parental consent to receive counseling. This means your parents cannot be informed without your permission.

A minor can still be treated, even if their parents disagree or refuse. All that matters is the consent of the person seeking treatment.

The father of a child does not need to consent to an adoption unless he has confirmed legally that he is the father.

