A MESSAGE FROM OUR CHIEF LOBBYIST GARY DANIELS

Dear ACLU Supporter,

The ACLU of Ohio works hard to keep our members, voters, and all Ohioans informed about the Statehouse and how legislators' votes affect your civil liberties. We also constantly seek ways to hold politicians accountable when they vote counter to your rights and good public policy.

The ACLU of Ohio 2018 Legislative Scorecard reports on legislators' votes for ten different bills from the 2017-2018 legislative session. As Chief Lobbyist, I personally testified on each of the bills we selected, so our position for each piece of legislation is on the record. All bills featured passed the House, the Senate, or both chambers.

The legislature will not conclude business for this session until after the election. But, we chose to release this scorecard now so you know where your elected officials stand on important civil liberties matters as the November 2018 election approaches.

The ACLU of Ohio 2018 Legislative Scorecard is for informational purposes only. It is not meant to be an endorsement of any candidates or legislators who score well or as opposition to those who do not. The ACLU is a non-partisan organization.

Please also keep in mind a scorecard inherently does not reflect other ways a legislator may or may not support civil liberties in the Statehouse including advocating for or against bills outside of public view, utilizing procedural maneuvers, or amending legislation to improve or worsen it.

The purpose of this Legislative Scorecard is to make you a more informed voter prior to Election Day. We hope you vote with civil liberties in mind!

In solidarity,

Gary Daniels
Chief Lobbyist, ACLU of Ohio

The lifecycle of any given bill may have several rounds of votes. The last and most recent vote is recorded in this scorecard and represents how each state senator and state representative voted on the date listed. To research all legislative votes on a bill, visit legislature.ohio.gov, search for legislation by its bill number, and click on "Votes."
