

OHIO MAYOR'S COURTS

NEWBURGH HEIGHTS

We analyzed 9,961 citations from November 2012 to November 2017 to create the map below.

This map shows where people lived at the time they received their citation from Newburgh Heights police officers or from Newburgh Heights mayor's court. The map covers a 12 mile radius around Newburgh Heights. Because the average trip distance for drivers in the Midwest is 12.8 miles, these maps show the drivers most likely to pass through Newburgh Heights.

Though only 14.9 percent of residents are Black, the police officers and mayor's court in Newburgh Heights issued 49.8 percent of their citations to Black people. Newburgh Heights issued 85.4 percent of all citations to people who do not live in Newburgh Heights. In 2016, Newburgh Heights made $332,044.39 net for its municipal budget from its mayor's court.

Each dot represents a person at their home address. The dots are color-coded to reflect the race of the person, and the municipalities on the map are color-coded to show the racial composition of the municipality.
