VOTING WITH A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

IF YOU HAVE BEEN CONVICTED OF A CRIME, YOU STILL HAVE THE RIGHT TO VOTE.

- If you have been convicted of a misdemeanor, you have the right to vote, even if you are incarcerated.
- If you have been arrested for a felony but have not been convicted, you still have the right to vote.
- The only time you may not vote is if you are currently incarcerated on a felony conviction. But once you are out of prison or jail, you must re-register to vote, even if you were previously registered. You re-gain the right to vote.
- If you are on parole or probation, live in a halfway house, or are on house arrest, you have the right to vote.
